The bottom line: the rules have not changed

No new federal citizenship-document or photo ID rule is in effect for the November 3, 2026 election. You will vote under the same rules as before.

01	You may have seen news about new voting laws. None of them are in effect this year.
02	Courts blocked the executive-order rules on registration forms and mailed ballots. The proposed federal law has not passed the Senate.
03	Do not let the headlines stop you from voting.

Key dates to remember

OCT 13

Registration deadline

This deadline has passed. If you moved within your county or changed your name, you can still vote.

OCT 24 to NOV 1

Early voting

Vote in person at any early voting site in your county. Nine days, including weekends.

NOV 3

Election Day

All twelve N.J. House seats and one U.S. Senate seat are on the ballot.

Every New Jersey voter can also vote by mail. No excuse needed. Counties began mailing ballots by September 19.

Registering is simple and free

01 No citizenship documents needed. No birth certificate. No passport. You simply sign a statement that you are a U.S. citizen.

02 One number is all it takes. Your N.J. driver's license or state ID number, or the last four digits of your Social Security number.

03 Three easy ways. Register online, by mail, or in person. You qualify if you are a citizen, will be 18 by Election Day, and have lived in your county for 30 days.

04 Already registered? Check it today. It takes minutes at nj.gov/state/elections. Moved within your county or changed your name? You can still vote.

What to bring when you vote

Most voters:

NO ID

New Jersey does not require identification from most voters, in person or by mail.

One small exception

Some first-time voters who registered by mail may be asked for ID once.

Many everyday items count:

- Any current photo ID
- A utility bill or bank statement
- A government check or document with your name and address

No ID with you? You can still vote using a provisional ballot.

Do I need to join a party to vote in November? No.

The November general election

Open to every registered voter.

Democrat, Republican, third party, or no party at all: everyone votes the full ballot on November 3.

No state, including New Jersey, requires party membership to vote in a general election.

Primary elections (earlier in the year)

The only place party matters.

Primaries choose each party's candidates, and New Jersey primaries are limited to that party's voters.

Even so, an unaffiliated voter can declare a party at the polls on primary day and vote right away.

What about the new laws in the news?

01 Congress The SAVE America Act would require citizenship documents to register and photo ID to vote. It passed the House but has failed repeatedly in the Senate. It is not law.

02 The White House Two executive orders tried to create similar rules. Courts blocked the 2025 order's citizenship-document rule and, for this election, the 2026 order's mail-ballot rule.

03 New Jersey Our state won its June 2026 case, but the Supreme Court paused that ruling in August. The mail-ballot rule is still blocked for November. New Jersey law requires neither citizenship papers nor photo ID.

Appeals continue and Congress could act again. ARA is monitoring and will update this guide if anything changes.
